However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs.4 lac or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs.4 lac only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.
(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.
(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees one million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees one million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMIT AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th JUNE, 2007): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/-(Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 15% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs.400,000/- or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 4 lac or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 4 lac only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees one million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees one million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMIT AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th JUNE, 2007): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 15% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs.400,000/- or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 4 lac or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 4 lac only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees one million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees one million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMIT AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th June, 2007): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.
(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 15% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.
(iii) Gifts valued at Rs.400,000/- or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 4 lac or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 4 lac only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.
(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.
(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees one million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees one million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMIT AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th June, 2007): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 15% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs.400,000/- or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 4 lac or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 4 lac only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees one million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees one million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th October, 2011): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs. 1.0 million or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 1.0 million or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 1.0 million only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees 2.5 million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees 2.5 million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th October, 2011): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs. 1.0 million or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 1.0 million or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 1.0 million only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees 2.5 million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees 2.5 million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 1.0 million or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 1.0 million only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees 2.5 million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees 2.5 million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th October, 2011): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs. 1.0 million or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 1.0 million or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 1.0 million only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees 2.5 million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees 2.5 million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th October, 2011): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs. 1.0 million or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 1.0 million or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 1.0 million only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees 2.5 million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees 2.5 million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (25th October, 2011): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient subject to the provision of these rules.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 10,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.10,000/-.

(iii) Gifts valued at Rs. 1.0 million or more shall not be retained by the recipient, except the President and the Head of the Government. However, the recipient of gift comprising distinct articles but gifted in a single transaction having collective value of Rs. 1.0 million or more shall have an option to retain any article(s) upto the collective value of less than Rs. 1.0 million only subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

(v) The maximum monetary limit to be allowed for retention of gifts in one calendar year for any functionary other than the President or the Prime Minister should not exceed Rupees 2.5 million. However, the gifts having value in excess of the limit of Rupees 2.5 million can be retained by the recipient on payment of 65% of the assessed value of the gifts.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (13th OCTOBER, 2017): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 30,000/- (Rupees thirty thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 30,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.30,000/-.

(iii) The President / Head of the Government and their families are entitled to retain gift(s) received from foreign dignitaries during visit abroad or their visit to Pakistan, as the case may be on payment of 20% of the assessment value of the gift(s).
However, the gift comprising distinct articles, but gifted in a single transaction could be retained by the recipient subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) For gift of value in excess of Rs.30,000/- received by all Government servants (Civil and Military) as well as categories mentioned in Para-13 of the procedure shall also be entitled to the same principles and policy laid down in Para-6 (iii) for the President and the Head of the Government.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (13th OCTOBER, 2017): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 30,000/- (Rupees thirty thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs. 30,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 20% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.30,000/-.

(iii) The President / Head of the Government and their families are entitled to retain gift(s) received from foreign dignitaries during visit abroad or their visit to Pakistan, as the case may be on payment of 20% of the assessment value of the gift(s).
However, the gift comprising distinct articles, but gifted in a single transaction could be retained by the recipient subject to the condition that part of an article will not be allowed to be taken. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value.

(iv) For gift of value in excess of Rs.30,000/- received by all Government servants (Civil and Military) as well as categories mentioned in Para 13 of the procedure shall also be entitled to the same principles and policy laid down in Para-6 (iii) for the President and the Head of the Government.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (18th DECEMBER, 2018): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gifts upto a value of Rs. 30,000/- (Rupees thirty thousand only) may be retained free of cost by the recipient.

(ii) Gifts valued above Rs.30,000/- may be allowed to be retained by the recipient on payment of 50% of the value exceeding the basic exemption of Rs.30,000/-. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value. All such gifts shall be properly catalogued and displayed at the prominent buildings owned by the Government. Different gift articles given by a single dignitary to a functionary at one occasion will be treated as single gift for the purpose of valuation.

MONETARY LIMITS AS PER PROCEDURE FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND THEIR DISPOSAL (8th MARCH, 2023): -

The monetary limits upto which the gifts can be retained by the recipients are as follows: -

(i) Gift(s) valuing upto USD 300 shall be allowed to be retained by the recipient after due payments as per its assessed market value. The gift(s) exceeding this monitory limit shall straightaway become State/Toshakhana property to be deposited and disposed of according to Toshakhana Procedure. This exemption shall however not be available in case of antiques and gifts of intrinsic historical value. All such gifts shall be properly catalogued and displayed at prominent buildings owned by the Government.

DISCLAIMER: -

This data/list is provided on Federal Government directions as per the record available, and is based on the information/gifts declared or deposited by the persons and departments responsible for it, under the policy prevalent at that time. Cabinet Division is not responsible for any error or omissions made by those individuals/departments.
